

MAKE YOUR PASSWORDS STRONG

Protect yourself, your colleagues and your county.

- Don't use easily guessed personal information—birthdays and family or pet names make terrible passwords.
- The longer and more complex, the better—at least 12 characters is best.
- Never share your passwords and never send a password in an email.
- Use multi-factor authentication (MFA) where available.

Kentucky Association of Counties