

DON'T TAKE THE BAIT

PHISHING PREVENTION 101

- Be suspicious of emails that beg you to act immediately or ask for personal information.
- Be wary of opening attachments.
- Verify the senders' address.
- Before providing any kind of personal or county information, call and verify with the source that they are indeed the ones who sent the email or message.

